General Rules and Guidelines

Within Trail Running and related sports there is zero tolerance for discrimination and harassment irrespective of gender, ethnic background, religious faith, sexual orientation and disability. It is necessary to develop tolerance and understanding and to establish recognition of people's equality in order to avoid discrimination, harassment and bullying. Everyone within the Women's Epic Event should establish secure settings and a secure atmosphere for children, youth and adults in all sport related areas, training, competition, pre- and post-, social, professional and family settings. Adults must respect the athlete's personal space and never overstep the limits for acceptable behavior.

The following guidelines apply within Women's Epic Trail Running:

1. Treat everyone with respect, and refrain from all forms of communication, action or behavior that may be perceived as offensive.
2. Avoid body contact that may be perceived as unwanted.
3. Avoid all types of verbal intimacy that may be perceived as sexually charged.
4. Avoid expressions, jokes and opinions that relate to the athlete's gender or sexual orientation in a negative way.
5. Show respect for the athletes, coaches and leader's private life.
6. Avoid dual relationships. If a reciprocal relationship is established, the situation should be raised and clarified openly in the milieu.
7. Practice good sportsmanship at all times.
8. Adhere to the intent of a rule when the exact wording of the rule may be interpreted in various ways.
9. Be responsible for their own safety and the safety of others
10. Know, understand, and follow The Rules, available on www.arabianwarrior.me
11. Obey instructions from race officials, marshals and zone leaders.
12. Treat other athletes, officials, volunteers, media, sponsors and spectators with respect and courtesy
13. Not use abusive, derogatory, or inflammatory language
14. Inform WE Representatives immediately if you are feeling not good or in condition of not continuing the race.
15. No disposal of litter or equipment around the course except at clearly identified places. All items must be kept with the athlete and disposed of appropriately at the end of the race.
16. Not attempt to gain unfair advantage in any way.
17. Failure to comply with The Rules may result in an athlete being verbally warned, subject to an athletic penalty, disqualified, suspended, or expelled.
